The Most Elaborate Work of the Kind Ever Made.

An order has been received by the Stern Manufacturing Company of Rochester for the casket in which the remains of General Grant will be buried. The company is now preparing a metallic casket of state, which, when finished, will be the finest and the only one of the kind ever made. The length is to be six feet and the weight 250 pounds. The shell will be of red cedar covered with the finest purple silk velvet, with heavy solid silver mountings, handles and portals. The inside metal is to be of highly polished copper, one-eighth of an inch thick, which will be lined with very heavy cream-colored satin, tufted and corded. There will be a pillow of the same material, upon which will be embroidered in ribbon the initials "U. S. G." There will be a full-length cover, with thick French beveled glass. The casket will be airtight. The outside box of cedar will be heavily lined with lead and with solid silver mountings and corner trimmings; it is pronounced as nearly indestructible as possible.

Senators to Attend the Funeral.

Sergeant-at-Arms Canaday, of the Senate, Friday received the following dispatch from St. Clair Springs, Michigan:

It is proper that the Senate of the United States shall participate with other Departments of the Government and with the people in doing honor to the memory of General Grant. I therefore designate the following Senators to represent that body, in connection with the funeral ceremonies: Justin Morrill, John Sherman, John A. Logan, J. D. Cameron, Wade Hampton, William Ransom, Joseph E. Brown, J. G. Harris and John F. Miller, of California. You will notify them immediately, and you are requested to officially accompany them. Thomas A. Hendricks, Vice President.

Of the Senators named, Miller is in Alaska, Cameron in Montana and Harris and Brown out of reach of telegraph. The other Senators were notified by telegraph, and the Vice President was informed of the absence and asked to name substitutes. Although the Vice President only named nine Senators, it is probable that a full delegation of twelve will be present at the funeral.

Determined to Die.

News come from Hamilton that Sam Woodin, an old resident of that place attempted to commit suicide there Wednesday. He first tried to hang himself, and, failing in that, he severed the arteries of one of his wrists. He was discovered in time to prevent death. Despondency is assigned as the cause.

Professor Hilgard says concerning his suspension from the Superintendency of the Coast Survey, that he did not care to have the matter settled by newspapers, nor to enter into public controversy on the subject, but that it should be settled by the Department where it belongs. If his office was wanted he could stand dismissal without murmuring, but he objected to going out under a cloud with charges of irregularities which had no foundation.

There has lately been a remarkable economy in the use of postage stamps, attributable, by the General Postoffice Department, not to the last change in the postal rates, but to "economy and hard times." The shrinkage in the revenue of the department for the quarter ending in March amounted to $800,000.

Governor Adams should issue his proclamation declaring the 8th of August a legal holiday.

The Governors of all the States will be invited to attend Grant's funeral.

Every section of the country is still voicing its grief at the loss of Grant.

Virginia City will have memorial services.

The Eureka Sentinel says: There is quite a large pile of wool at the Eureka and Palisade depot for shipment to the Eastern market. Several carloads went out on Monday and more is to follow to-day, and with each departing train. The sheep-raisers are feeling better this year than last, for the reason that better prices are ruling for their wool. Last season it went as low as sixteen to seventeen cents per pound. The wool growers said it was because Congress had been cutting down the tariff on foreign wool. It is rating at the present time at about twenty-one cents per pound, an advance of from five to six cents per pound, with no change in the tariff in the meantime. The whole truth about the matter is, that the price of wool, like everything else, is regulated by the inexorable commercial law of supply and demand. There are only about half a dozen men who ship wool from Eureka. The industry in the State is quite extensive, but most of the men engaged in the business are located more conveniently to other points. Nevada wool is among the very best produced in the United States, and this State, we are told, is much better adapted to sheep raising than any other section of the Pacific Coast. But we did not commence this article with any view of going into all of the details about the sheep business. Maybe we do not know any more about it than any one else anyhow. Every sheep in the State has been shy of us since the last election. We have not seen one that dared to look us squarely in the face since that memorable event. They pull their own wool over their eyes whenever they meet us. But now that their fleeces have appreciated in spite of the tariff, perhaps some of them will muster courage to raise their heads. We give notice that their apologies shall be accepted. J. G. Ford and H. P. Merritt are the largest wool growers in the neighborhood of Eureka. They will ship about 40 tons, which at 21 cents per pound, amounts to $840 per ton or $16,800 for the lot. Davis & Lockwood will ship from here 15 tons, S. O. Wells 15, and John Potts 12. The entire clip shipped from this point will command over $32,000. All of the Eureka wool goes either to Hartford or Philadelphia. The Central Pacific people have also been doing a clever thing by the wool men this season. They have given them a rate of $2 50 to any of the Eastern markets from Palisade. Last year they paid $4 60. And this embrace about all we are prepared to say at this writing about wool and sheep and rates and things.

At the conclusion, Rabbi Brown prayed for the departed soul, the whole congregation, by order of President Frey, rising and reciting the Kaddish. "This is a prayer," said Rabbi Brown, "never recited for a non-Jew before." "We say it for our dead parents only," said one of the officers, "and no rabbi ever heretofore bestowed such an honor upon a Gentile."

Rabbi Brown and the congregation shed tears during the eulogy prayer.

England's Coming Election.

A London dispatch says popular interest in politics has been again transferred from Parliament to the hustings. When the Tories assumed power there was a general, though vague idea that they would at once inaugurate a radical foreign policy, and public interest was centered on Parliament; but the Conservatives in office have been even less belligerent than the Liberals were, and people now await new declarations of principles from both parties. Many members of Parliament have already left London, and gone to their respective boroughs to arrange for the coming struggle. All indications show the next battle at the polls will be by all odds the severest and most closely contested which have been waged in England since the campaign of 1836. At present it would be hazardous to give odds on either side. The Tory political agents in the provinces continue to send in promising reports of the party's prospects. Nearly every report received from these gentry by the Central Association contains confident assurances of victory in farming districts and mining boroughs over the Radicals, as the Liberals are called since the Whigs have been so largely superseded in the management of the affairs of the Gladstone party. The Conservatives have decided to contest every constituency in Great Britain where there is a shadow of a chance for success. Tory candidates will therefore stand for every constituency in England and Scotland, except in about forty, where the Liberals have such an assured ascendancy that it would be a waste of energy to try to beat them. An enormous fund for defraying election expenses has already been accumulated by the Conservatives.

The Eureka Sentinel says: There is quite a large pile of wool at the Eureka and Palisade depot for shipment to the Eastern market. Several carloads went out on Monday and more is to follow to-day, and with each departing train. The sheep-raisers are feeling better this year than last, for the reason that better prices are ruling for their wool. Last season it went as low as sixteen to seventeen cents per pound. The General's Ancestry.

Following are interesting extracts from Grant's memoirs: My family is American, and has been for generations, in all its branches, direct and collateral. Matthew Grant, the founder of the branch in America, of which I am a descendant, reached Dorchester, Massachusetts, in May, 1630. In 1635 he moved to what is now Windsor, Connecticut, and was the Surveyor of that colony for more than forty years. He was also for many years of the time Town Clerk. He was a married man when he arrived in Dorchester, but his children were all born in this country. His eldest son, Samuel, took lands on the east side of Connecticut river, opposite Windsor, which have been held and occupied by descendants of his to this day. I am of the eighth generation from Matthew Grant, and seventh from Samuel. Matthew Grant's first wife died a few years after their settlement in Windsor, and he soon after married the widow Rockwell, who, with her first husband, had been fellow passengers with him and his first wife on the ship Mary and John, from Dorchester, England, in 1630. Mrs. Rockwell had several children by her first marriage, and others by her second. By intermarriage, two or three generations later, I am descended from both the wives of Matthew Grant. In the fifth descending generation my great-grandfather, Noah Grant, and his younger brother, Solomon, held commissions against the French and Indians. Both were killed that year. My grandfather, also named Noah, was then but nine years old. At the breaking out of the war of the Revolution, after the battles of Concord and Lexington, he went with a Connecticut company to join the Continental army, and was present at the battle of Bunker Hill. He served until the fall of Yorktown, or through the entire Revolutionary war. He must, however, have been on farlough part of the time—as I believe most of the soldiers of that period were—for he married in Connecticut during the war, had two children, and was a widower at the close.

It stands unrivalled. San Francisco Soap Co.'s Pale Savon for washing, and all household purposes, is the best and most economical manufactured.

"The Shadows of a Great City," and it is safe to say that no performance given in Reno during the past year has been so keenly enjoyed and heartily applauded as the one of last evening. The actors played their parts well, although, of course, on account of the stage, it was not possible to produce the piece with as good scenic effect as is done in the large cities.

Knights of Pythias.

The Order is having a steady and substantial growth throughout the entire country, and a better element is coming in, while the weeding out process is being indulged in to a considerable extent. The Knights of Pythias claim to be numerically the third institution of a fraternal character in the world, it having now a membership of over 155,000, of which number nearly 20,000 were added last year. There are 2,096 subordinate lodges. Its financial condition is good, as is shown by the unusually large revenue which the Supreme Lodge has received during the past year, amounting to $23,960 57.

The State Fair

The Candelaria True Firsure of last Saturday says "A complete list of the racing prizes offered by the management of the State Fair will be found on the second page. The next meeting promises to be a very interesting one both in racing and exhibits. Esmeralda county has never been fully represented at any one of the Fairs and it should be so at this one. It would, therefore, be advisable for all who feel any interest in such matters, and they should interest every inhabitant of the State as well as county, to begin making preparations for the event."

A High Compliment.

Much for Little

In this age when the events of yesterday in all parts of the world are found in to-day's paper, when tidings of a battle in Egypt or a campaign across seas and laid at our door before its smoke is dissipated, it is necessary for well-informed people to have access to reliable maps. Not all can afford the heavy library atlases, and even they are often found untrustworthy unless a new copy is purchased as often as revised

If you want an atlas, small enough for general use, full enough for nearly every purpose, critically accurate and up to date, we recommend the new Handy Atlas of the World, published by Messrs. Tison, Blakely, Taylor, & Co., 753 and 755 Broadway, New York, which is both a credit to them and to the American press. It is bound in flexible cloth, contains 38 beautifully colored maps and important statistics.
Among its many notable good things are maps showing standard time, the railways of the United States, recent potter expeditions, Central Africa as explored by Stanley, the seat of the Egyptian war, Bible Lands, and our principal American cities. If your bookseller does not have this excellent work, send fifty cents direct to the publishers and receive it by return mail

A Furor at Cedarville

The Modoc Independence says From reports that have reached us it seems that the people in the vicinity of Cedarville are considerably exercised over criminal matters. It seems that for some time past the people of that town have been annoyed by a series of depredations, some of which are of a very serious nature. Last week two well-known residents of the town, viz Gus Kaufman, and Jimmie Waters, were arrested on charges of petit larceny, and were convicted of the charges.
Justice Long sentenced Kaufman to pay a fine of $50 and to serve 100 days in the county jail, and imposed on Waters a fine of $150 and also sentenced him to 200 days in jail. The evidence adduced in the trial on these charges led the people to believe that they had a hand in the various acts of vandalism which have been committed in the town during several months past, and numerous charges have been brought against them, but the result of the trial have not yet been learned. Our informant states that on Tuesday, Waters was being tried on charges of attempted arson in having on a certain occasion set fire to the store of Kistler Bros & Co., by throwing a fire brand through the glass door of the building. The evidence against him is of a damaging character. Kaufman and Waters are both men of family, the former being a butcher by occupation, while Waters worked alternately at blacksmithing and barbering. For several years prior to the coming to this country, he worked in J Lovell's black-smithshop in Susanville

Utah and Nevada Horses.

The Northwestern Stock Journal says Utah and Nevada have for a number of years been paying special attention to breeding up and increasing their horse herds. Bands of one or two thousand head are numerous in both sections. The original stock was American mares, and good stallions have been used to such an extent that there is scarcely a herd of horses to be found that will not average from nine to eleven hundred pounds. Formerly the Copper-bottomed was a favorite breed and every band shows a good many teams with all the muscles and good points of that once grandest of Missouri stock. There are many Hambletonians among the younger animals and splendid driving teams can be found among any band of cow horses on the range.
There is very little market in the west for these horses and our western friends should make an effort to introduce them into the eastern trade marts. A combined shipment by two or three breeders sending a carload to Kansas City and one to Chicago, as samples, would be a very proper move. The endurance of our western horses, if once demonstrated to eastern buyers, would make them much sought after by the public generally and create a market co-extensive with the present and future. Who will act in the mat-

Orphans Home Matters.

Superintendent Williams, the efficient Superintendent of the State Orphans Home in Carson, has just cut from the Home grounds and stored away in the barn five acres of alfalfa and five acres of wheat. Some of the wheat without irrigation grow to be over five feet high, some of which is on exhibition in General Preble's office. The Superintendent thinks he has 100 of the best blooded chickens in the State. There are in his hennery six varieties of these feathered beauties

Expected Profits

Mrs Grant's share of the proceeds of the General's book will be between $300 000 and $400 000. Publisher Webster's says "Four thousand agents are now gathering subscriptions, and the number will soon be increased to 5,000. The work will be issued in two volumes to be published separately, about the first days of December and March next respectively—and they will both be sold exclusively by subscription.
Webster's will for Europe August 1st, to arrange for the publication of the books in England, France, Germany, Italy and Austria. Norwegian and Portuguese also have made overtures to publish the books. Mrs Grant will have a large percentage on the sale in foreign countries.

Not a Candidate

Mr W S Hobart left for San Francisco on Saturday evening. He said to a Virginia Chronicle reporter at the depot that he would not be a candidate for U S Senator from this State in 1886 on the Republican ticket or any other ticket

The Daily Report, of San Francisco, has issued an official map of Chinatown in that city. The map shows that a great portion of the most desirable business part of San Francisco is occupied by Chinese. The Chinatown is great in extent reaching from beyond Pacific street on the south, and from Kearny street on the east to Stockton street on the west. A glance at the map will show how the Chinese are encroaching upon the best portion of the city, and how their quarters are constantly spreading in all directions

The Lyon Co Times of last Saturday says

Hon W. S Hobart came in from the South last evening and went from here to Virginia by carriage. He is the gentleman the Republicans will pit against Jim Fann a year from next Fall in the Senatorial fight

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth?
If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it.
It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. Feb. 21-aw-1yr
